Great News: You Now Have Access to ClassPass, Thanks to Your Employer!

What is ClassPass?

ClassPass is a global platform that gives you instant access to thousands of top-rated gyms, fitness studios, and wellness experiences in over 30 countries.

As part of this new free employee benefit, you'll receive sponsored ClassPass credits every month to book and enjoy:

- ✓ Fitness & Yoga Classes
- ✓ Gym Sessions & HIIT
- ✓ Spa & Wellness Experiences
- ✓ NEW! WeWork Access worldwide

Before We Start, Let's Understand

Your employer, in collaboration with Wellness Coach, is excited to bring you ClassPass credits every month.

To activate your credits and start enjoying this benefit, you'll first need to create or re-activate your ClassPass account.

- Why do I need to use my work email?

ClassPass and Wellness Coach verify eligibility using your company email address. Your work email must match our records to complete sign-up or to transition your current account to the discounted membership.

- I already own a personal ClassPass account. Why can't I just create a new account?

ClassPass doesn't allow multiple accounts per person. If you've had a ClassPass account before, you'll need to transition your existing account instead of creating a new one.

- Why do I need to follow the guide exactly?

Following the steps ensures your personal account, company eligibility, and membership benefits all stay linked properly. Skipping steps may prevent your discount from applying.

How to Access Your Company-Sponsored ClassPass Account

If You Already Have a Personal Account & How to Recover a Personal Account

- Already have a personal ClassPass account?

Your existing account will need to be connected to your company-sponsored plan.

Follow this step by step guide to get assistance

- Forgot your credentials to log in to your personal ClassPass account?

If you can't access your personal account because you forgot your login details, you'll need to recover it with the help of ClassPass Support. Once your account is restored, you can then connect it to your company's corporate plan.

Follow this step by step guide to get assistance

NOTE: 🚫 If you access ClassPass from the Play Store or App Store

Instead, after you are able to login you'll need to look for a yellow banner at the top of the mobile or desktop version that says: "Finish signing up for your corporate offer"

Make sure you click that banner to activate your company-provided credits.

Otherwise, you won't see the correct plan or benefits.

You are all set! 🎉

You now have access to your ClassPass account and credits.

How Many Credits Does One Class or Service Cost?

While credit requirements vary by location, time, and class type, on average, a standard fitness class or wellness service costs between 4–8 credits.

However, studios in higher-cost areas, like New York City, may require more credits compared to locations such as Kansas City, to reflect regional pricing differences.

How To See Your Corporate Plan & Credits

Go to Profile > Account in the ClassPass app. Here you'll find a summary of your company's corporate plan.

What You'll See:

- Credits sponsored by your company each month.
- If you notice more credits than usual, it may be from unused credits that rolled over from the previous month.
- Rollover credits expire at the end of the next month. The maximum rollover is capped at your plan's monthly credit limit.
- Your plan automatically renews once a month, and this renewal date will always be displayed.
- Your account balance should show $0 if you are only using the credits sponsored by your company.
- Adding extra credits (optional): If you'd like more credits for additional services, you can tap "Add Credits" to purchase one-time extra credits.

How Credits Work

Booking a Session

Anna selects the option that fits her schedule and taps the credit amount to reserve the class. She receives a confirmation email with the booking details.

Using Her Credits

The credits used (4 in this case) are automatically deducted from her 10-credit monthly balance. She now has 6 credits left for the rest of the month.

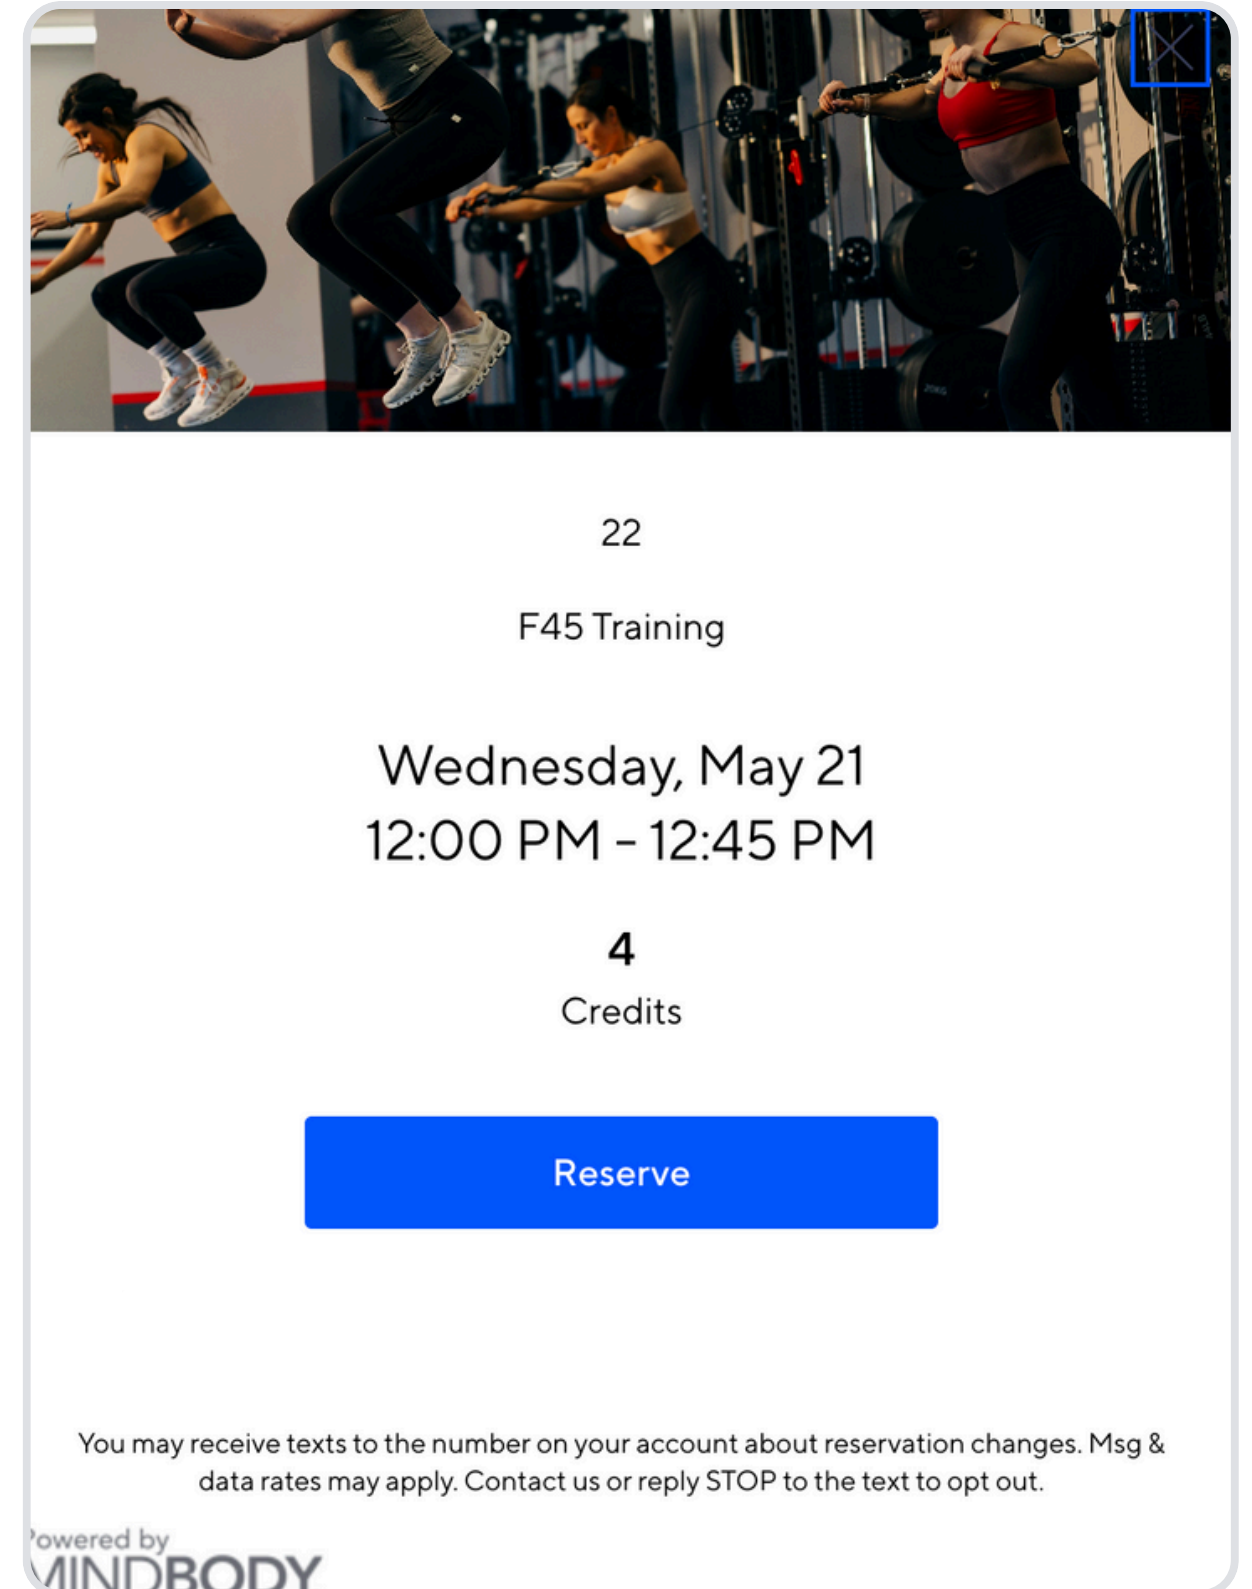

Since Anna is still an active subscriber, her 6 unused credits will roll over to next month.

She'll have:

-  10 new credits
-  6 rollover credits

 Total: 16 credits to use next month.

Note: Rollover credits expire at the end of the next month, so she will be motivated to use them and keep her wellness habit. The maximum rollover is capped at your plan's monthly credit limit
